WHAT THIS LAWSUIT IS ABOUT:

Plaintiff, Vera Kern ("Plaintiff") individually and on behalf of a class, brought this action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division entitled Vera Kern., individually and on behalf of a class of similarly situated persons v. LVNV Funding, LLC, Case No. 09 C 2202. In the Complaint, Plaintiff asserted class claims pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e and e(10) the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("FDCPA") alleging that false and misleading statements were made in connection with LVNV Funding, LLC's ("Defendant") filing of state court lawsuits against consumers in that Defendant identifies the same original creditor as "Compucredit Acquisitions Fundi", "OSI/Gulf State Credit-original creditor" and "OSI/Gulf State Credit-original creditor\ COMPUCREDIT ACQUISITION FUNDING". Plaintiff also asserted an individual claim alleging that Defendant failed to provide her validation of the debt before it sued her on an account that she claimed was not hers.

The Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement, subject to a fairness hearing which will take place on _____, 2009, at _____ a.m./p.m., before Judge Andersen in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, Everett McKinley Dirksen Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604, Courtroom 1403.

NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY: By settling this lawsuit, the Defendant is not admitting, and expressly denies, that it has violated the FDCPA, or otherwise has done anything wrong.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT: Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to the settlement described below. If you do not wish to be part of the settlement, you must opt-out. If the settlement is finally approved, you do not opt out and you return the claim form at the end of this notice, you will receive the benefits described below:

Relief to Plaintiff: Defendant shall pay Plaintiff $1,000 in settlement of her individual claims for statutory and actual damages. Defendant agrees to close the account it sued Plaintiff upon and agrees to refrain from selling it and to effectuate a request for the deletion of LVNV's tradelines to the applicable consumer reporting agencies, if any and if not already completed.

Class Recovery: Defendant shall provide each class member, who as of _____, 2009, owed a balance on Account owned by Defendant where a lawsuit was filed by or on behalf of Defendant as set forth above, shall be provided a $550.00 credit of their account balance. The estimated value of these credits is $43,450.00.

In the event that Defendant's records indicate that a class member has paid off their account in full after _____, 2009 but before _____, 2009, any such class member will be sent a check for $250.00.

Attorney's Fees & Costs. Defendant shall pay Plaintiff's costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees. Subject to the court's approval, Defendant will pay Plaintiff's counsel $10,862.50 in attorney's fees and costs which represents 25% of the amount recovered by the class. This amount is in addition to the amounts to be paid to Plaintiff and credited to the Class. Administrative Costs. Defendant will pay all costs associated with the notice and administration of the Agreement.

Release. Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will be part of the Class. By staying in the Class, all of the Court's orders will apply to you, and you will give Defendant a "release." A release means you can't sue or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants, about the claims or issues in this lawsuit ever again.

CLASS COUNSEL'S OPINION OF THE VALUE OF THE SETTLEMENT: The FDCPA provides that in a class action, if a violation is proven, the most money the Court can award to the Class is: (1) each Class Member's "actual damages," if proven, (2) money damages set by law (called "statutory damages"), not exceeding $500,000 or 1% of the defendant's net worth, whichever is less, and (3) attorney's fees. In an individual case, if a violation is proven, the FDCPA provides for (1) actual damages, if proven (2) statutory damages not exceeding $1,000, and (3) attorney's fees. As such, if you excluded yourself from the Class, filed your own lawsuit, and successfully proved Defendant's liability under the FDCPA, you could receive (a) between $0 and $1,000 in statutory damages; (b) any actual damages, if you can prove you actually suffered them, and (c) attorney's fees. Plaintiff has brought this matter as a class action. Plaintiff has not alleged any actual damages on behalf of the class members. The Class Recovery of $43,450 in credits which is $550 per class member, is equivalent to 55% of the statutory maximum dollar award an individual could recover on their own.

Plaintiff and her attorneys have examined the risks of pursuing the claims of Plaintiff and the class members to judgment and have concluded that as no greater award could be obtained, this settlement is fair, reasonable, and prudent.

Otherwise, you will be bound by the settlement agreement and release. If the settlement is not approved, the case will proceed as if no settlement had been attempted. There can be no assurance that if the settlement is not approved, the class will recover more than is provided in the settlement, or indeed, anything.

This description of the case is general and does not cover all of the issues and proceedings, thus far.
